

I am emailing you about Indianas no call law. Before we had it I recevead calls from phone companys and credit cards companys even when I never did any busnese with them. I got tired ansering the phone and finding some sails person trying to sell me some thing. Now I do not get them any more. This is one state law that dose some thing good for the people of Indiana and I hope it stayes the way it is now.